Ball Race 2013

This years Ball Race held at Heanton Street took place on Friday 23rd August 2013. The balls were released early evening and the winning balls were caught in the ‘prize traps’ at the bottom of the hill. Alan Jones found his new vocation as commentator and ensured that all passers by, including those waiting for their fish super, joined in. The ball race still proves to be a successful event organised by rotary and the funds raised for 2013 totalled £500.
