Braunton Fair

This year's fair organised by Rotary was held on Bank Holiday Monday, 26th May. The weather was kind and the turnout was good. With lots of attractions/activities taking place visitors to the fair were entertained throughout the day. Highlights included, the live music stage, falconry display, dog show and craft tent. Money raised has not yet been finalised as I write, but I am sure from the turnout it was a successful year. Well done to all involved.

Will You Remember?

A couple in their nineties are both having problems remembering things. During a check-up the doctor tells them that they’re physically okay but they might want to start writing things down to help them remember.

Later that night, while watching TV, the old man gets up from his chair. ‘Want anything while I’m in the kitchen?’ he asks.

‘Will you get me a bowl of ice-cream?’ replies his wife.

‘Sure’ he says.

‘Don’t you think you should write it down so you can remember it?’ she asks.

‘No, I can remember it’ he replies.

‘Well, I’d like some strawberries on top too. Maybe you should write it down, so as not to forget it?’

‘I can remember that. You want a bowl of ice-cream with strawberries.’ he says.

‘I’d also like whipped cream. I’m certain you’ll forget that, write it down’ she asks.

Irritated, he says ‘I don’t need to write it down, I can remember it! Ice-cream with strawberries and whipped cream. I got it, for goodness sake!’

Then he toddles off into the kitchen. After about 20 minutes the old man returns from the kitchen and hands his wife a plate of bacon and eggs. She stares at the plate for a moment.

‘What’s the matter?’ he asks.

‘Where’s my toast?’ she replies.
